

Personal

- Resident of Geneva since 1999
- Married to attorney, Colleen Thomas
- Three adult children, Shari, Jaci and Bryan
- Four granddaughters
- Lake Forest College, BA (1978)
- Chicago-Kent College of Law, JD (1981)
- Member Geneva Chamber of Commerce
- Chancellor for St. Marks Church
- Member of Autobahn Country Club in Joliet

Professional Experience and Leadership

- Family law/trial attorney since 1981
- Past Chair and active member of several bar associations:
  - Kane County Bar Assoc.
  - DuPage County Bar Assoc.
  - Illinois State Bar Assoc.
  - Christian Legal Society
- Pro bono attorney
- Court appointed guardian ad litem
- Former director of the Kane County Bar Assoc.
- Volunteer thespian for bar association fundraisers since 1992

*“We need to trust
our elected officials
so we can trust
our elections!”*

Doug and his wife, Colleen Thomas, with Bailey

Lifetime of Service

- Kane County Bar Assoc. Community Service Award (2019)
Bestowed upon one attorney with impeccable character, who is held with high regard and esteem by his peers, for services to the community outside of the legal profession.
- Recipient of numerous honors
  - Melvin Jones Fellow for Dedicated Humanitarian Service (2018)
  - Dist. 1-J George Lazansky Distinguished Service Award (2015)
  - Outstanding Service Award (2014)
  - Foundation Fellowship Award (2012-2013)
  - Lions Club International Distinguished Service Award (2012)
- Past President of Geneva Lions Club
- President of the “We Serve” Foundation of Geneva Lions Club (2015-2021)

“Public service is the greatest attribute for any public official!”